INDIANAPOLIS TO SEND CROWD

Wholesale Trade Division of Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce Coming For Fall Festival.

WILL BE HERE ON THURSDAY

New Recruits Are Being Added For the Industrial Parade—Auto-mobile Show a Feature.

Plans are progressing rapidly for the horse show and fall festival to be held here next week. The arrangements committee has settled on the fact that the horse show will begin Tuesday and will continue three days, with some attraction each night of the week after Monday. There is a political meeting here Monday night and it was thought best by members of the committee not to attempt anything for that night.

It has also been settled definitely that the industrial parade will be held Thursday afternoon promptly at four o'clock. On that same day the members of the wholesale trade division of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce will visit Rushville. The Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce accepted the invitation of the Rush county chamber for that day.

L. H. Lewis, general secretary of the Indianapolis organization, has replied that "it is with a feeling of pleasure that the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce accept your kind invitation to visit Rushville on Thursday, October 22. I am expressing this sentiment for Mr. A. G. Ruddell, chairman of the wholesale trade division, to which division your letter of invitation has been referred.

"You will hear directly from that division within the next few days concerning the arrangements for the visit of the Indianapolis delegation."

Mr. Lewis, the general secretary, naturally has a great interest in Rush county because it was his home until a few years ago. He was born and reared at Manilla and formerly worked on the Rushville Democrat in the editorial department. He later went to the Indianapolis Star and then elected to his present position.

The committee on arrangements has fixed the opening of the festival and show for Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock when a parade of horses entered in the show will be held. The showing will start immediately after dinner. The show will continue Wednesday and Thursday. It is planned to have the show completed by four o'clock Thursday afternoon in time for the industrial parade. By holding the show during

Don't Rock the Boat

Just sitting tight in squally weather won't do—a firm pair of hands at the oars is much better.

When the ground swell from Europe hit our industries, the wise men did not merely sit still.

They glimpsed fair water ahead, and saw still further on the harbor of prosperity.

They began to row and they are getting there.

One of the best pair of oars a business man can use when things begin to slacken up is definite, constructive business building advertising in the daily newspapers.

Can we tell you how?

WALKS IN ON BIG CRAP GAME

Chief of Police Rosencrane is Unable, Singlehanded, to Catch Any Gamblers Sunday.

SECRETED ALONG MILL RACE

Cap, 15 Cents, Blanket, Set of Dice and Deck of Cards is Held as Evidence—Had Some Beer.

Chief Rosencrane has a set of dice, fifteen cents in money, a blanket, a box of poker chips, a deck of cards, and a cap in his possession awaiting the call of the owner but it is hardly likely that the owners will call for it would be a dead "give-away" to the participants in a crap game and beer party yesterday afternoon along the mill race, near the foot of Fifth street.

Chief Rosencrane suddenly interrupted the crap game as someone was wanting to shoot fifty cents and as he stepped onto the scene the gamblers took to the weeds and he was unable to identify any of them. He received a telephone call Sunday afternoon that a game and beer party was in progress along the race bank and went to the scene about five o'clock. The blanket was laid on the ground and several men and boys were gathered around shooting the dice when he appeared.

The escape of the gamblers was too quick for Chief Rosencrane and while he found two men who claimed they had just arrived they were unable to tell him the names of any of those in the party, or at least this is what they told him. The game was in progress on the east bank of the race near the point where Fifth street leads north to Seventh street and was hidden from view by a heavy growth of weeds.

"Give me the dice, I'll shoot fifty cents," said one of the boys. "All right shoot," said Rosencrane, and then there was a grand scramble. In the rush to get to the high weeds a cap, the blanket and fifteen cents were left behind. The men and boys scattered in every direction and there was no chance for Rosencrane, singlehanded, to land any of them. He took the remains for "evidence" and will continue to keep it as he expected something to turn up that will give a clue as to who was in the party.

On his way back to the city Rosencrane was asked if he saw anything of the beer party and made a second trip to the place. In an old hollow log, near the scene of the crap game, he found the poker chips and cards and a lot of broken ice, showing that a beer party had been held there earlier in the day. Labels from the bottles were scattered all over the ground. While Rosencrane believes he recognized several of the men, he is not positive and the matter will rest until tomorrow when Prosecutor Smith who was out of the city today, will be consulted.

AUTO TEARS UP STRING OF FENCE

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mahan of Indianapolis Narrowly Escape Fatal Injury in Mishap Sunday.

HAPPENS AT FAIR GROUND

Spring Breaks, Locking Steering Gear, and Causing Machine to Run Through the Fence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mahan of Indianapolis narrowly escaped death yesterday afternoon late when their automobile ran through the fence at the fair grounds about two hundred feet west of the west entrance. The machine did not upset. Persons who saw the shape of the machine and the way it tore up the fence marveled at the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Mahan escaped alive. They were traveling east at the time of the accident.

Mr. Mahan had the runabout going at a fast rate of speed when a spring broke and locked the steering gear. Mr. Mahan was helpless to control the car. It ran diagonally across the road and through the fence at a merry clip. Mr. Mahan managed to stop the car a few feet in front of a big stump and the hitch racks.

The driver managed to keep the car from turning over which was considered unusual because of the handicap under which he worked. Mr. and Mrs. Mahan suffered severe injuries from the broken glass in the windshield.

Mr. Mahan's face was badly cut. He had an ugly looking wound on his left cheek and a deep gash on his forehead. Mrs. Mahan suffered more from the shock than anything else. She was cut slightly by the flying glass. Mr. and Mrs. Mahan returned home last evening at five o'clock on the I. & C. dispatch.

The runabout, which is practically new, was badly damaged from the impact with the fence. The radiator was caved in on the left side and would not hold any water. The windshield was riddled. The glass broken into fine bits and the supports which held the windshield in place were broken off. The lamp on the left side where the machine hit the fence was torn off.

Otto Bussard, who brought the damaged machine in to his garage, says he can not understand how Mr. and Mrs. Mahan escaped without being fatally hurt because there was a barbed wire stretched tightly along the top of the fence. It was not touched apparently by the machine and persons who were at the scene of the accident were at a loss to explain how the automobile got under that wire.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahan live at 765 West Drive, Woodruff Place.

TO HAVE BANQUET ROOM.

The Odd Fellows have leased the third story of the Puntenny building adjoining the Odd Fellows building on the south to be used as a banquet room. The room will be redecorated in the same elegant style as that which characterizes the Odd Fellows home. An opening will be cut in the wall between the two buildings on the Third floor so that access from one to the other will be easy.

PAID FINE

SEEKS PLACE ON THE STATE BOARD

J. Q. Thoams Wants to Represent Third District in Indiana Agriculture Association

ELECTION TO BE JAN 5, 1915

His Information on Fairs. Would Make Him a Very Valuable Member of the Board

J. Q. Thoams, secretary of the Rush County Fair Association, will seek a place on the state board of agriculture at the annual election which will be held in Indianapolis Jan. 5 1915. He is a candidate to represent this district, the third.

Mr. Thomas has been recommended highly by the board of directors of the Rush County Fair association who testify to his worth as secretary of the fair here. His past record and his wide acquaintance with the fair business offers conclusive proof that he would be a very valuable member of the state board.

Members of the state board, sixteen in number, are elected by the county agricultural associations of the state which are in charge of the various county fairs. Eight members of the board are elected each year to hold office for two years. The president of each county agricultural association is generally the delegate to the annual election of the state board. The whole state votes on the election of the member from each district so that a candidate must, of necessity, solicit the vote of every fair association in Indiana.

Mr. Thomas has already started an intelligent campaign for the position and expects to make an aggressive fight. He will have to solicit the vote of over a hundred agricultural associations' representatives.

Mr. Thomas has always been an enthusiastic booster for the state fair. He has not missed the annual exhibit since the civil war. There isn't any doubt but that he has displayed more interest in it than any man in this section of Indiana. Mr. Thomas has been connected with the gates at the state fair a number of years and by this experience has gained much practical knowledge concerning the fair.

But that alone is not the sum and substance of his experience with fairs. He has been associated with fair work since he was a young man and has been officially connected with the Rush County Fair association for many years, this time as secretary. He has gathered a large fund of information from observation in this line of endeavor. Mr. Thomas is a graduate of both law and classical colleges and is also well informed on stock raising and farming. Mr. Thomas is a practical business man and is undoubtedly worthy the support of those who will select the eight new members of the state board.

There isn't any doubt but that Rush county has a just claim for representation on the state board. This county has never had a man there and the honor is most certainly due Mr. Thomas, who devoted his life to a study of fairs. Rush county is the leading agricultural and stock raising county in Indiana and deserves recognition.

Work was started this morning on remodeling the room formerly occupied by the Conroy restaurant in Main street. The room when completed will be occupied by the Stern and Company store, which will move from Second street.

(By United Press.)
Fenway Park, Boston, Oct. 12.—Before one of the greatest crowds that ever saw a world's series game the Braves this afternoon met the Athletics in what may prove the decisive contest. Mack sent Bush to the slab while Stallings chose Tyler. The weather was fine which accounted in part for the immense throng of 35,520 wildly cheering fans.

FIRST INNING.
Philadelphia—Murphy doubled down the left foul line. Oldring sacrificed Tyler to Schmidt. Collins was safe and Murphy scored when Connolly dropped Collins' sacrifice fly. It was an easy mull. Baker fanned, swinging heavily. Collins stole second. McInnis walked Collins out. He was caught napping at second, Tyler to Evers. One run. One hit. One error. The Boston bunch was evidently nervous and Tyler's control was faulty.

Boston.—Moran flied to Collins. Evers singled to left, driving the ball hard, while the Boston fans roared. Connolly fouled to Baker. Evers stole second. Whitted fanned. No runs. One hit. No errors. Bush also showed poor control. This was a slow inning.

SECOND INNING.
Philadelphia.—Wash out, Tyler to Schmidt. Barry fouled to Schmidt. Schang flied to Evers. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Boston.—Schmidt fanned. Deal flied to Baker. Maranville walked. He stole second. Gowdy hit a two bagger, scoring Maranville. It would have been a home run on any other field. It was into the left field stands and the ground rules acted. Tyler out, Barry to McInnis. One run. One hit. No errors.

THIRD INNING.
Philadelphia.—Bush fouled to Schmidt. Murphy out, Evers to Schmidt. Oldring out, Maranville to Schmidt. No runs No hits. No errors. Tyler was pitching better.

Boston.—Moran out, Baker to McInnis. Evers out, Bush to McInnis. Connolly lined to Murphy. No runs. No hits. No errors.

FOURTH INNING.
Philadelphia.—Collins lined to Evers. Baker fanned. McInnis doubled into the left field stands. Walsh singled to left, scoring McInnis. Barry out, Deal to Schmidt. One run. Two hits. No errors.

Boston.—Whitted out, Collins to McInnis. Schmidt singled over second. Deal out, Collins to McInnis. It was a sacrifice, sending Schmidt to second. Maranville hit what looked

BELGIANS STILL HEAD GOVERNMENT

(By United Press.)

Rosendaal, Oct. 12. (Via the Hague)—Upon request of the German forces of occupation at Antwerp, the Belgian authorities, headed by burgomaster Jan De Vos, have undertaken to continue the civil government of the city. The Germans have removed the heavy siege guns—the 42 centimetre pieces—with which they effected demolition of the Antwerp forts and it is assumed here these will be sent to aid the German forces operating in the region of Verdun.

30 DEFENDERS ARE SAFE AT OSTEND

(By United Press.)

London, Oct. 12.—News that the greater part of the Belgian and British troops, the defenders of Antwerp, had arrived safely at Ostend avoiding by a forced march the encircling German movement was received here with great satisfaction. It is accepted, however, that at least 8,000 British and Belgian troops, the rear of the retreating Antwerp army were cut off and have entered Holland where they will be interned.

TRIED TO FORCE THEM TO ACT AS NURSES.

(By United Press.)

Rotterdam, Sept. 28. (by Mail to New York).—Declaring that German officers had tried to force them to act as nurses for German wounded, a party of young English girls arrived here the other day after a perilous journey from Germany. They had ridden thirty miles in a wagon through lines of soldiers, dead and alive.

One of the girls—the oldest herself but 24—told of how they were locked up in a room all night by the Germans. She said that in the morning an officer entered and after looking them over said he "guessed they were husky enough" to act as nurses for the wounded. This girl said she "gave him a piece of her mind" and told him they would die before they helped take care of the Germans. They were thereupon released, she says.

100 MEMBERS AT FRONT.

(By United Press.) London, Sept. 28. (By Mail to New York).—More than one hundred members of parliament are at the front, fighting for England. The Prime Minister has a nephew on a battleship; Lord Crewe a son-in-law; Lloyd George's second son is in the Territorials; Winston Churchill's brother recently enlisted; Sir Edward Grey has a nephew in the service and in fact all the prominent officials have either sons, brothers or nephews on the firing line.

ILLINOIS OFFICIAL FOUND DEAD TODAY

(By United Press.)

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 12.—Dead twenty-four hours, the body of Secretary of State Harry Woods, of Illinois, was found in the garage at his home at 7 a. m. today, a bullet wound in the forehead. A .38 calibre automatic revolver clutched in the right hand and the garage door locked on the inside were taken as evidence of suicide. Quantities of stocks and bonds in the pockets of his coat led to the belief that financial worries may have caused Woods to take his life. No other reason has been assigned. Woods was an unsuccessful candidate for Democratic senatorial nomination against Roger Sullivan.

The death is thought to have occurred about 6:30 a. m. Sunday. At that time Woods arose, dressed and left the house without telling his family where he was going.

CONTINUE TO MOVE THROUGH GALICIA

(By United Press.)

Petrograd, Oct. 12.—Further advance of Russian troops through Galicia and Bukovina was announced in a war office statement today. The general staff has decided for the present to withhold details of the fighting in their neighborhood from which it is concluded that an important coup is impending. In pursuance of this policy of secrecy no hint of the location of the cavalry engagement in which Prince Oleg, son of the grand duke Constantine, was wounded in the leg has been given. Officially the situation in East Prussia is unchanged.

ENGLAND'S YOUNG WOMEN HELP RECRUIT THE ARMY.

London, Sept. 28. (By Mail to New York).—England's young women are proving of great aid to Lord Kitchener in his efforts to raise a great second army for Great Britain. A group of enthusiastically loyal young women have banded together for the purpose of forcing all single young men now in the army to join or be branded as cowards.

"The young, unmarried men who have no physical weakness, no serious domestic or other ties, and who will not now serve his country in time of need, proclaims himself to be an abject coward and deserves the contempt of every right-minded person," said one of these young women the other day. "Single young men should be made to feel that Khaki is the only fashionable color. We girls are going to refuse to be seen with any young man who does not bear the khaki hall mark of manhood."

PARTY

Why not now?

An Exhibit of Economy.

Congressman James R. Mann of Chicago, Republican floor leader in the lower house, made the Democrats grind their teeth the other day with a singular display of economy. He wrote a letter to the secretary of the treasury asking that the purchase of a postoffice site in his district be held up until the government is in a better condition to spend money. Here is what he said: "Dear Mr. Secretary: Congress has authorized the purchase of a site for a postoffice building in Chicago. In view of the present situation and the need of immediate economy in governmental expenditures, I would suggest that the purchase of this site be postponed until the Government can afford the expenditure of the money without resorting to increased internal revenue taxes. As the site, if purchased, would be in the congressional district which I represent, I hope that my suggestion may be taken in good part."

While the Democrats have been piling up appropriations and preparing a measure for additional taxation, Republicans have been loudly declaiming in favor of economy. Mr. Mann is showing that Republican protests are not all talk.

Voters this year can get their best campaign arguments right at home. Are wages higher? Are times better? Are money conditions easier? Is the cost of living lower? Are bankers more ready to lend money?

These are questions that can be answered without the assistance of campaign orators, or campaign textbooks. The voter has only to ask himself and some of his friends these questions and others like them and then decide for himself whether he is going to vote to continue that conditions which now surround him.

The Democrats have announced that the tariff question is settled. Are you satisfied with the way they have settled it?

Had the present tariff, or laws similar to it, been in existence for the past few years, this country would now be in a deplorable condition. This fact should be remembered in the elections of November. The men who helped to make this dametcheuhasar i...ceemsea law should be retired from Congress. A Republican majority should be chosen, which act in itself would serve notice upon the world that the present unfair and unsafe policy would be tolerated no longer than the shortest time within which the restoration of the Republican party to power in the nation can be accomplished.—Philadelphia North-American.

What does the working man think now of the removal from American industries of the protection which Republican policies placed thereon?

What Our Neighbors
Are Talking About
+++++

An Honest Confession.

(Cincinnati Enquirer, Dem.)

The work of framing a bill for a bill for placing war taxes upon the business men of the United States proceeds with much opposition from the members of the Republican and Progressive parties, and amid dissension and contention in the rank of the Democratic organization.

It is an uncalled for measure; an unpopular measure, and one that should receive the condemnation of the American people at the polls.

The Democratic members of the Senate and the House should have the courage to revise their tariff law.

They should have the political judgment to appreciate the fact that the voters of the United States are in opposition to the placing of direct taxes, of new burdens upon the business interests at all times, but especially so at this time, when all business has been under such strain, such tension, such disarrangement for months and years.

The proposing of this measure by the Democratic leaders is an open confession that the revenues yielded by the customs under the new tariff law are insufficient, and this supplementing of them by new odious and burdensome direct taxation of business interests only arouses the people to a full sense of the Democratic failure to provide the revenue through the tariff duties.

Why not boldly and courageously revise the tariff law and secure revenues sufficient to cover the expenses of the Government?

The Democratic platform, the Democratic thought, the Democratic promise has for many years been a tariff for revenue, and why not then carry those platforms, that thought and that promise out to its logical conclusion, viz, securing revenue by and through the tariff?

That will be approved by the Republican voters, by the Progressive voters, but this proposition to place new taxes, annoying taxes, costly taxes, war taxes in time of peace, upon business men who are confronted daily by serious difficulties; who are suffering by the dislocations occasioned by the European war; who are hampered by stringency in financial affairs; who are already victims of city, county, state and Federal taxation, is a political blunder, an administrative mistake, a legislative oppression.

Such Senators and Congressmen who vote for these new tax impositions upon the business interests of the country should be rebuked by their constituents at the polls when they present themselves for re-election.

It is only by voicing opposition in such an effective manner that the business men, the workingmen, the citizens of this republic can control their Government.

ORGANIZE FOOTBALL TEAM

Kappas Expect to Meet Strong Independent Teams This Fall

The Kappa Alpha Phi fraternity of this city has organized a football team for the coming season, and will play independent teams. The Kappas have much good material and promises to have a winning team. They will secure bookings through Spaldings at Indianapolis. Among those, who will try out for the team are, Brann, Gunning, McMahan, Buell Todd, Denning, Blackledge, Humes, Alexander, Berry and others. A called meeting will be held tonight to elect a captain.

ABLE CANDIDATE

IRA BATMAN

Ira Batman, of Bloomington, Republican candidate for judge of the appellate court, is one of the best known and ablest lawyers in Indiana. He has few equals as a public speaker.

THEY'RE "RETROGRESSIVES" NOW.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—As a result of the recent New York primaries in which the Progressives of Roosevelt's home state, after a most spirited contest over the gubernatorial nomination made such a miserable showing, casting less than 30,000 votes as against 390,021 cast for Roosevelt in this state in 1912, the Progressives are being referred to as "Retrogressives." The new name is spreading like wild fire over the Empire state. The suggestion has also been made that the emblem of the party be changed from a Bull Moose to a mosquito.

Our County Ticket

The Republicans of Rush county are to be congratulated, this year, on the personality of the ticket which they have placed before the people for their votes in the coming November election. They are men, without a single exception, who are worthy of the support of the people of the county. There is not a single one of them against whom anything can be said. And as to their character and fitness for the offices which they seek, all who know them, will testify to their efficiency.

HON. WM. M. SPARKS, who heads our ticket as a candidate for Judge of the Circuit Court, occupied the bench here in Rush County for many years and is a well known Christian gentleman of the highest ideals and is imbued with a spirit of progress in all things.

ALBERT C. STEVENS, our candidate for Prosecuting Attorney, is a young lawyer of high ability and efficient scholastic attainments. He sustains a high reputation and character in our community.

WM. R. JINNETT, for Representative, is well known to the people of the county, having made the race for that office two years ago, leading the ticket at that time and failing of election by only a few votes. His efficiency is well known and his popularity attested by his former race.

JOHN O. WILLIAMS, our candidate for Treasurer, is not a whit behind the men we have already named in standing and character. He is always in the front rank for every good word and work.

J. K. JAMESON, our candidate for Sheriff, has pursued the career of a master blacksmith among us for years and has the respect and admiration of the entire community.

DR. LOWELL M. GREEN, our candidate for Coroner, stands in the front rank in his profession and enjoys a very large practice. We consider the Republicans most fortunate in securing him as one of their candidates.

CHESTER PECK comes next as our candidate for Recorder. Chester is a young man, who has the confidence and esteem of all who know him and is thoroughly familiar with the line of work in the office to which he aspires.

ELWOOD KIRKWOOD, our candidate for Surveyor, stands among the other candidates as the peer of any of them and is a man thoroughly prepared for the work of the office which he seeks.

HENRY W. SCHRADER, than whom no better man could be elected as Assessor. He knows our county and would make a most efficient officer.

JOHN T. BOWLES and PLEASANT A. NEWHOUSE, our candidates for Commissioners, have been with us as neighbors and citizens long enough for us to know that they can be trusted with the affairs of the Commissioners' Court.

HIRAM H. HENLEY, JOHN W. DAVIS, JOHN F. MCKEE, ROYAL T. LEE, JOHN W. ANDERSON, R. P. HAVENS and J. ED. CALDWELL our candidates for Councilmen are leading citizens in their several communities and thoroughly able to discharge the great responsibilities of the offices which they seek.

From top to bottom the ticket is sound; it is honest and reliable. And it is worthy of the support of the people of Rush County. There is no higher citizenship in our great state than in this county and these men are representative of this high citizenship.

They are worthy of, and we believe, will receive the support of the people of this great county. Voters, if you elect these men, they will serve you well for they are men who believe in "a government for the people, of the people and by the people."

French Statement Tells of Vigorous Cavalry Engagements in Vicinity of Hazebrouck

HERALDS GERMAN ADVANCE

(By United Press.)

Paris, Oct. 12.—Today's official three o'clock communique told of the attempt of the German western line to sweep forward on the French coast to the Straits of Dover. It characterized the situation as good. Vigorous cavalry engagements continues in the region of La Bassee, Estaires and Hazebrouck.

The statement says that a German attack between Lassigny and Roye was repulsed and that the French forward movement continues along the centre.

On the extreme right wing, the French troops repulsed a night attack north of St. Die.

Announcement of cavalry engagements as far west as Hazebrouck is significant. The German advance has always been heralded by the reconnaissance of Uhlans in force. Hazebrouck is only forty miles distant from Boulogne.

THAW CASE UP TO SUPREME COURT

Is One of Many Important Pending,
That Will be Decided at This Term of Court

APPEAL FROM NEW HAMPSHIRE

Application Expected Soon Asking to Advance it to Early Hearing
Jerome May Oppose

(By United Press.)

Washington, Oct. 12.—Renewal of his fight for liberty by Harry K. Thaw was one of the most dramatic and important cases facing the Supreme Court when it reconvened today for the 1914-15 sessions.

Thaw's appeal from the decision of the New Hampshire federal court refusing to set him at complete liberty upon a habeas corpus plea was on the docket of the court.

Application to advance the case for early hearing this fall or winter from Thaw's counsel was expected soon. In the ordinary course of the court the case would not be reached for a year or more. Thaw is now technically in custody of the U. S. marshal for New Hampshire, following his flight from Mattewan asylum. One of the last acts of the Supreme Court before it adjourned last spring was refusing requests of Thaw to be released on bail pending hearing of his appeal and a permit to go to Pittsburgh to testify in litigation affecting the estate of his father, the late William Thaw.

Former Gov. William Stone of Pennsylvania is Thaw's chief attorney. It is believed here that William Travers Jerome, popularly called Thaw's "nemesis" and the Attorney General of New York will oppose any move looking to advancement of Thaw's appeal to block in any way his long effort to make good for all time his escape from Mattewan.

NEWS OF DEATH RECEIVED.

Mrs. Dennis O'Neill has received a newspaper clipping telling of the death of Dennis O'Neill, 86, father of the late Dennis O'Neill of this city, at his daughter's home in Holyoke, Mass. He was born in Ireland and came to this country in 1854. The newspaper article shows that he was a very active man and was a prominent citizen of the place. He came to be a stone contractor and built many of the bridges and other structures in Holyoke.

TODAY'S GAME IS CRUCIAL ONE

Conceded by Both Teams in World's Series Victory Means the Championship.

MACK GETTING DESPERATE

If Boston Wins Third Straight, it Will Mean Pennant in Four Games, Critic Believe.

BY HUGH IS FULLERTON.
(Written for United Press.)

Boston, Oct. 12.—Boston and the Athletics faced each other today for the crucial game of the series. It was conceded by both teams that today's game means the championship.

If Boston can win again the Athletics will be a broken and desperate team and the chances are that the miracle team will rush through to four straight victories. If the Athletics rally and win, then the judges of the game believe that they will come strong and fight to a finish, probably carrying it to seven games.

For the first time in his career Mack is in desperate straights for pitchers. His two veterans have fallen and all his advisers are criticizing him for using them. It is reported that he will send Bush in today to stop the rampant Braves and then fall back upon his youngsters to try to save the day.

Stallings makes no secret of the fact that he intends to send Rudolph against the Athletics and come back tomorrow with James and try to sweep the series.

The Braves today are confident, full of wild excitement and all day yesterday they were being made the heroes of Boston, which seemingly has gone insane over them. Stallings strove in vain to keep them away from their admirers who were hurting their chances by excess of adulation.

The Mackmen laid doggo in their hotel, keeping out of sight as much as possible. They declare they still are confident that they will win but the truth is they are worried and upset.

It is evident that Mack is more worried than he ever has been. He secluded his players as much as possible, refused to allow them to ride in the same car with their wives on the trip here and yesterday herded the wives in one set of quarters and the players in another. Both clubs held long meetings yesterday and discussed the situation.

The Braves spirit is wonderful. Nothing shakes their confidence that they will win. They believe it and unless the Athletics stop them today nothing will check their impetuous rush to the highest honors.

The students of the game and the officials are all in the air over the showing of the Braves. They cannot understand it. It simply is a case of a fair ball team playing great ball and a great ball team playing only fair ball. The Braves know that if the Athletics ever get started they will batter their way to even terms and perhaps to victory. Their hope is to sweep the champions off their feet by the "attack-brusque."

The wagering on the series is odd. They talk a lot of 2 to 1 that Boston will win but few save college boys throwing away their dad's money will bet. Boston is wild with enthusiasm, excitement but scanty as to real coin. The batting is 6 to 5 the Athletics will win today's game.

If Mack loses today he will be fiercely criticised. He is not tipping off his plans. Stallings is practically certain to pitch Rudolph and it is evident he has little faith that Tyler can win in his present form. Mack is being advised against working Bressler although, in spite of their vaunted ability to hit left handed pitching, the Braves could do little or nothing with Plank Saturday.

Frank Mullin, who has been seriously ill for several days showed some improvement today.

three days, there will be no need of rushing the showing of the last classes through as has been done before.

The arrangements committee can not yet announce the night attractions because there has been some delay in arranging them. It is settled that there will be an automobile parade on Saturday evening, the closing night, at nine o'clock.

Many recruits for the industrial parade are being gained each day. J. W. Tompkins told the committee he would have a float in the parade and J. B. Schriebe & Sons, monument dealers, will have a float in the parade.

The industrial parade committee has also been arranging for an automobile display during fall festival week. The autos will be placed along the court house square in Second street between Main and Perkins street. Several automobile agents, including Joe Clark and Charles Caldwell, agents for the Hupmobile; Knecht & Gartin, agents for the Buick and Ford; W. O. Bradway of Newcastle, agent for the Marion and Empire, and other agents who have been doing business in this county. Those who have not received an invitation to make a show are urged to do so because their name might have been overlooked.

Knecht & Gartin plan to have a Ford and Buick day here on Friday of fall festival week when every Buick and Ford owner in the county will be invited to take part in a parade.

JUDGE TAKES HIS OATH OF OFFICE

James C. Reynolds of Tennessee Enters Upon Duties in United States Supreme Court

JUSTICE LURTON'S PLACE

Thomas W. Gregory Takes His Place as Attorney General. Ceremonies Were Impressive

(By United Press.)

Washington, Oct. 12.—With impressive century-old ceremonies, the United States Supreme Court convened today for the October term, after the four months recess. The final oath was administered to James C. McReynolds, who with this ceremony became a full fledged Justice.

After the due cries of the court crier the members of the court filled in from the ante room and took their places along the bench. McReynolds entered just behind them, and took his place beside the clerk, just in front where he stationed himself all last year as attorney general of the United States.

Chief Justice White then called attention to the fact that there was a vacancy on the bench, and that James C. McReynolds, of Tennessee, was present and duly accredited and qualified for the position. He greeted his new colleague, and welcomed him to the bench in the name of the entire court.

After this the Clerk of the Court, James D. Maher, administered the "Justice" oath to McReynolds. The oath to support the constitution was administered a month ago by Chief Justice White, but the oath today bound the new Justice to administer justice impartially between rich and poor, and was the final step in admitting McReynolds to the Supreme Bench.

After taking the oath Justice McReynolds was escorted to the vacant place on the bench by the Marshal. His seat is on the extreme left of the Chief Justice, or on the extreme right as one faces the court.

Immediately after this, Solicitor General of the U. S. John S. Davis, rose and introduced to the court as the new Attorney General of the United States, Thomas W. Gregory, who succeeded Justice McReynolds in Wilson's cabinet.

With the ceremonies and formalities disposed of, Chief Justice White announced the death, just three months ago today, of Justice Lurton, in whose place McReynolds was appointed. With this announcement the court adjourned out of respect to his memory. No decisions were handed down today.

After leaving the court room the Justices drove to the White House, to pay their respects to President Wilson and notified him that the court was again in session.

The first "decision day" will be next Monday. Less than two score cases—very few of importance—remain in the "breast of the court" undecided.

CHENEY CASE OPENS TODAY

Second Malpractice Damage Suit for $10,000 Starts at Shelbyville

The case of Harrold Cheney, by his next friend, Carlton Cheney, against Dr. Hugh Elliott and Dr. John Paxton, for damages demanding $10,000, alleging malpractice, started this morning in the Shelby circuit court. Most of the day was spent in obtaining a jury. Eighteen men were drawn on a special venire for this case. The case was sent to Shelby county on a change of venue from this county. It is alleged that the doctors were negligent in setting a broken hip bone that the boy sustained in an accident at school. A similar case brought by Carlton Cheney was tried there some time ago and the jury found for the defendants. Watson, Tittsworth and Green represent the defendants.

A. D. Batchelor Talks On Every-Member Canvass; S. G. Huntington On Memorials

St. Paul's M. E.

Yesterday at the St. Paul's M. E. Methodist church the Rev. A. D. Batchelor preached sermons in preparation of the "every-member canvass" day which is to be observed next Thursday. The sermon at night was addressed especially to the men of the church. The text was I Sam. 10: 26, "There went with him the host whose hearts God had touched." After outlining the historical interest of the text which referred to a new national movement and new form of government, he said in part:

The text indicates what is needed to make any cause succeed. It is pre-eminently true of a religious cause. Men who are in touch with God will be touched by the fire of his Spirit.

The Bible is the story of how God is touched by the need of this world. One passage will make this plain—"God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son." If we are touched by God we shall have a conviction for the salvation of souls. No man can be touched by God and remain indifferent to such work. To pray for the lost and to seek to persuade them is the passion of the heart which has been touched by God.

If we are touched by God we will have a conscience in the support of God's work. In Saul's new kingdom complaint was made about the taxes. But if the nation was to be organized in more efficient form it needed more money. Sometimes church members complain of the collection. They think of it more as a tax than as an opportunity to make the kingdom effective. God's work must be supported or it cannot live. Nothing hurts the heart like covetousness. It hardens the heart. Of what use are we to the cause of God when we get a heart of stone? When our hearts are touched by God we will have charity for our leaders. Saul had his faults. Some knockers in the nation magnified these faults. The author says "Certain worthless fellows said 'How shall this man save us?' And they despised him and brought him presents. But there went with him nevertheless a host whose hearts God had touched. They had charity instead of criticism. They had sympathy instead of scorn and sarcasm. If the 'worthless fellows' had been touched by God they would have overlooked Saul's mannerisms and mistakes.

Men who are touched by God in their hearts will cooperate in the conquests of the church. The old version reads "band of men" instead of a host. It indicates that the host was united. Cooperation was needed because there were enemies on the border. Saul was called to make conquest of these. His reign was occupied by many wars. It required a strong and united government to drive these back and to hold them in awe. But Saul could never have had the heart to undertake this work had not the band of men gone with him whose hearts God had touched. In God's work today we need united action. We must pull together in the support of the church, in upholding our leaders, in all of our endeavors.

The aim of the "every-member canvass" is to enlist the entire church membership in every activity and service. It means that we shall all be at it and altogether at it. And indeed we will be when our hearts are truly touched by God.

First Baptist

The text on the sermon "Memorials" at this church by the Rev. S. G. Huntington Sunday night was Matt. 26:13. A week ago we had the text of the evening in our Sunday school lesson. It is, therefore, already well fixed in your minds, no doubt.

Webster defines a memorial as, "anything to preserve the memory of a person or an event."

Mary anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped them with the hair of her head. The oil she used was very precious and some present objected to so lavish use of it on the ground that it was "waste". But Jesus commended Mary for her service of love and caused her to be preserved in the records of the Holy Writ that whenever the Bible should be read the story of Mary would be read also and thus her name also would be preserved and held in the most tender remembrance. God is always pleased to take cognizance of any act of love that we may do for Him. Regardless of one's station in life if the motive behind the act is pure, heaven's stamp of approval is placed upon it. The fact that God memorialized Mary's name for her act of love is proof sufficient that he will not forget any of those who also put their trust in Him and obey Him.

There are many memorials spoken of in the Bible. The mere mention of a few of them will suffice to suggest their significance. Thus in the Old Testament, we find, first, the rainbow, a memorial of the flood and the sign that God never will again destroy the world with a flood. The writer of the Apocalypse tells us that a rainbow encircles the throne of God, doubtless a memorial of God's mercy and salvation. Secondly the Passover, a memorial of the deliverance of Israel from Egyptian bondage. Christ of the Christian's passover for he it is that delivers us from the bondage of sin. Third, the stones of memorial worn upon the shoulders of high priests anciently. Upon these stones were engraved the names of the twelve tribes of Israel. Isaiah teaches us that in the form of scars in his hands Jesus Christ bears our names before the Father in the sanctuary above.

In the New Testament such other memorials are found as, first baptism, a memorial of the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ. As a self evident fact immersions is the only form of baptism that accurately portrays the event for which God ordained it to memorialize. Secondly, the Lord's Supper, a memorial of our Lord's sacrifice upon the cross. Not to be observed by proxy and the false idea of transubstantiation, but by every Christian person, and in emblematic form as the Lord taught us. Third, the new birth. Here we have a memorial of creation. Paul says, "If any man be in Christ he is a new creature." Wilson's Emphatic Diaglott says, "a new creation." The false theories of the world-scientists and the evolutionist never trouble the man of Christian experience. Fourth, as in the case of Cornelius, the prayers and deeds of God's people came up before the Lord as a memorial of their faith and confidence in him. What a great blessing it is to pray and do good deeds of kindness and love! But how unfortunate it is for those who neglect prayer and fail in their giving. Well may we all ask, "Is it I?"

Not a memorial of the many in God's word should be overlooked. This is especially true of those found in the new testament. They mean much. The world has many memorials and they are practically kept in mind and observed. But by and by the world, its memorials and all that is therein shall pass away and be forgotten. Psa. 9:15, 2RE, 3:10 But not so with God's word and his memorials. They stand fast forever. Psa. 135:13, 1Pe., 1:25. In the spirit of worship, therefore, every citizen of God's spiritual kingdom certainly ought to acquaint themselves with an duly observe memorials and all things relating to the kingdom.

NEW EFFECT OF WAR BEING FELT

Children Are Being Forced to Work to Support Mothers While Fathers Have Gone to Front

FUNDS FOR POOR FALL OFF

Increase in Child Labor Shown by
New York Board of Health, Which Requires Certificate

BY CARLTON TEN EYCK

(Written for United Press.)
New York Oct. 12.—A new, unexpected and depressing effect of Europe's great war is making itself felt in New York—and probably many other American cities—now.

Children—girls and boys of 14 and 15—are today sent to work where yesterday they were being sent to school. With their fathers and older brothers having been called to the colors by their native countries, these children are now forced to work in order that the mother and other little ones do not starve. The few paltry dollars that they earn each week helps to keep the wolf away from the door.

How noticeable is the increase of the number of children seeking work this fall is shown by a visit to the child labor bureau of the Board of Health. Before a boy or girl under sixteen years of age can work in New York they must get a certificate from this bureau, permitting them to do so.

For the past three or four weeks a line of children sometimes a half a block long has been waiting at this office every day, seeking permits to find employment. Such a condition has never before existed, the officials say, and they declare that in eight out of ten cases the children say they are forced to seek work because their father has gone to the war in Europe.

One of the most pathetic features of the situation is the withholding of funds cheerfully given to a committee which permitted many children like those seeking work now to stay in school. Formerly many wealthy people gave freely to this committee and the funds were used to keep the children who applied for permits to work in school. If the child said that he was forced to work in order to help support a family the committee saw to it that the family got each week what the child would have earned and thus kept the youngster in school.

Since the war the people who formerly made donations have, "hoarded" their money. They are not making any gifts now—when they are needed so badly—and consequently the committee cannot help any of the children.

The child labor bureau will not issue a permit to any child that is not fourteen years old. The mothers, or fathers or whoever goes with them to the office to apply for the permit must take along proof of the child's age also.

Many pathetic cases are heard during a day in the office of Miss J.
V. Minor agent for the bureau who is the first applicant for permits have to see.

"My daughter is fourteen," insists
"Mrs. J. Raffle" as she presents a little wisp of a girl before Miss Minor.

"How is that?" queries Miss Minor. "This passport says she was a year old when you came over here and it shows you have only been here ten years."

"Well, you see," said the mother, pleading earnestly, "when I came over a friend told me that if I told the child was four years old I would have to pay half fare for her. So I dressed her up in baby's clothes and carried her in my arms, saying she was a year old. But it didn't do me any good as I had to sit her down to get my ticket out and when I did she walked away and officers discovered she was more than a year old and I had to pay half fare for her."

Just then a very polite Frenchman leaned over Miss Minor's desk.

"I beg pardon," he said, "but would you mind telling me how a gentleman for whom I am acting can get a permit for his girl to work. She is fourteen but she never went to school in this country and he does not know how to go about getting papers. I am asking for him as he is so nervous about such things being new in this country. And it is imperative that his daughter work."

"You bring or send him and his daughter down here and I will see what can be done for them," replied Miss Minor. "I have to see them personally." The Frenchman seemed much put out because she did not hand him a permit for the child to go to work at once. After the applicants pass Miss Minor they are taken into another room where they are examined by doctors. If they are not in good health, weigh less than eighty or are not taller than four feet eight inches or are suffering from any physical defect their application is rejected.

If they are suffering from enlarged tonsils or some ailment that can be treated they are only rejected temporarily. But if it is tuberculosis or a disease on that order their rejections are permanent.

ELOPES WITH HER BROTHER-IN-LAW

Mrs. Clifford Brown of Near New Salem Reported to Have Fled With Omer Brown.

WORD IS RECEIVED FROM HER

Mrs. Clifford Brown, it is reported at New Salem, eloped with her brother-in-law, Omer Brown, the latter part of last week, leaving behind her husband and three children, none of whom is over nine years of age. It is said that her husband Saturday received a postal card from her saying that she and his brother were "in Cincinnati, Kentucky and still going."

Mr. and Mrs. Brown lived on the J. T. Downey farm near New Salem.
One morning last week Mr. Brown arose shortly after midnight to help his mother move from near New Salem to a farm near Arlington. When he returned home, he found his wife had departed. She left early, it is said, while her children were still in bed asleep.

It is reported that Mrs. Brown wrote her husband asking him to leave their baby into the care of her mother, Mrs. Abe Walker, living in North Harrison street. Mr. Brown's brother is staying with his children now.

A Medicine of Merit

A proprietary medicine, like everything else that comes before the public, has to prove its merits. The law of the survival of the fittest applies in this field as in others. The reason for the tremendous success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is because it has been fulfilling a real human need for forty years, so that today thousands of American women owe their health and happiness to the marvelous power of this famous medicine, made from roots and herbs —nature's remedy for women's ills.

Russia Gives up Effort to Capture Siege Fortress, German War Office Says Today

AUSTRIANS WIN AT LANCUT

Defeat Six Russian Divisions and Rout Cossack Division East of Nymao—A Contradiction

(By United Press.)
Berlin, Oct. 12.—(By Wireless Via Sayville)—The German war office today issued the following statement: "The general staff reports that a very strong garrison defended Antwerp at first with great energy and then fled in full rout after an attack by the German infantry and marine divisions. Among the garrison was one British marine brigade. The complete breakdown of the Anglo-Belgian troops was shown by the fact that no military authority could be found to surrender and the capitulation of the city was negotiated with the Burgomaster. Our forces have taken many prisoners but the number is not yet available. Many fled into Holland and returned to Belgian soil. General VonDeseler has received the "order Pour La Merite" for his taking of the city.

"From Vienna we have reports that in the face of heavy destruction Russia has given up the attempts to take the siege fortress of Przemyel. The Austrian army defeated six Russian divisions near Lancut and routed one Cossack division east of Nymao.

"The Japanese have occupied the Shantung railway—the Chinese state railway built by Germans—and China has lodged protest.

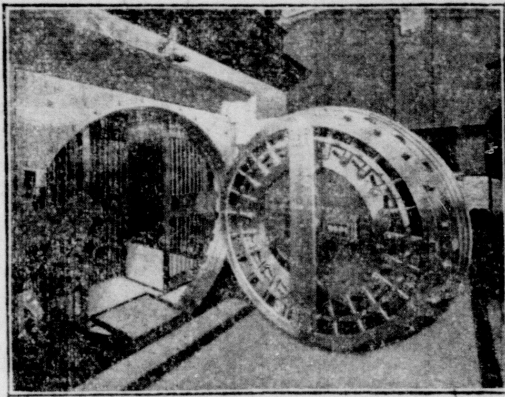

"The Italian newspaper Corriere Sera Stampa reports revolting atrocities by the French—Senegalese troops.

The German press emphasizes in articles on the late King Carol of Roumania—the political ability, statesmanship and military leadership of the dead ruler.

The newspaper Polytyken declares Japan's action in the Pacific in occupying German islands to be exceedingly strange, as it has no military connection with the attack on Kiao Chau. The Morning Post states that during the bombardment of Antwerp, the Germans most carefully spared churches and museums.

The Vienna report of the defeat of the Russian forces at Lancut is at variance with Russian reports of continued success in this section. It indicates that the German army has advanced sixty miles east of Tarnow where the Russian war statements have heretofore located the fighting line.

DECISION CAUSES SUITS TO BE FILED

Administrator of Estate of Milton Wagner Wants Question Arising Settled by Court

ANOTHER CLAIMS INTEREST

James V. Young, administrator of the estate of the late Milton Wagner, filed suit today against the Reserve Loan Life Insurance company and Louis C. Lambert, to recover on an insurance policy, demanding $1,200. It is alleged that on December 20, 1911 the late Mr. Wagner took out a policy with this company for $1,000. It is stated that Louis C. Lambert claims to have an interest in the policy and the insurance company refuses to pay until the court makes an order to this effect.

It is understood that the insurance company is not contesting the death or the payment of the policy but objects to Lambert, and according to the complaint, will not pay the amount despite the fact that proof of death has been made. Mr. Wagner died Sunday, September 20. He was supposed to have been shot by a burglar.
